

why the Y

Dear Athens YMCA Members,

Summer is in full gear here at the YMCA in Athens!

Our building and everywhere around it is flooded with kids, filling this place with amazing energy. These are some of my favorite moments to be a part of this family!

Let me show you one of the special milestones we celebrated recently:

We got to witness these 2 sweet sisters ride their bikes without training wheels for the first time! I absolutely love how they give the credit to their “coaches” - our Y staff!

So why the Y?

Because the Athens YMCA is a place where children are encouraged to be courageous!

Gratefully,

Shae Wilson
